We, the seniors of Johnston High School, Class of 1959, do hereby dedicate our yearbook to you, Mr. Lancaster. We have deep gratitude and appreciation for your unceasing patience and helpfulness. We value you as a teacher, counselor, and friend. You have helped make our school life not only a profitable, but a very happy experience.

My best wishes to the graduates of 1959.

It is a well-known fact that educators seldom miss an opportunity to offer advice, and I am no exception. In a letter to George Washington in 1786, Jefferson wrote, "It is an axiom in my mind that our liberty can never be safe but in the hands of the people themselves, and that, too, of the people with a certain degree of instruction." Each of us needs to educate and improve himself so that he can better play his part in preserving this liberty. I hope each of you will work to make himself a person of purpose, of integrity, and of service, so that the liberty about which Jefferson wrote, will be safe with you.

Student council is assuming an ever-increasing role in the development of tomorrow's leaders and followers. Through active participation in student council we begin to realize the problems and obligations which will confront us when we take our place in society as adults. You can thus see what results a good student council can bring about.

The Johnston Student Council has sponsored the following projects this year:

- A get-acquainted party during the first week of school
- Three-day celebration during Homecoming week
- Sent representatives to the State meeting of the Iowa Association of Student Councils
- Sponsored a Suburban Conference dance
- Arranged for assembly programs
- Helped set up policies for the student body
- Collected and helped distribute food to the needy at Christmas time
- Promoted a new record player for the school

OUR class history

KINDERGARTEN

One bright autumn day in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-six, the bright five-year-old faces of this year's senior class were seen entering the kindergarten room of Miss Larson. Of those faces, fourteen can still be seen around the Johnston Consolidated School. They are: Deanna Stenstrom, Ellen Lamp, Mary Weatherspoon, Judy Betz, Linda Hoyle, Richard Kinsey, Joyce Busby, Joyce Still, Mary Pontious, Gary Sellner, Mike Voorhees, Donna Otto, Deanna Robinette, and Bill Stoner. Another person who was starting out at Johnston that year was Mr. Varner.

FIRST GRADE

Miss Moline and Miss Voorhees took over this year. Additions to the class were Judy Martin, Larry Madole, Sandra Steffey, and Sharon Caruthers.

SECOND GRADE

In second grade with Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Kesterson as our teachers, we gained Denny Sweeney, Shari Seibert, and Gary Harvey. Many a hard-fought baseball game was played with Mrs. Wilson acting as the pitcher for both teams. Mrs. Kesterson also came up with the idea of having a relay just for the first and second grades. Ribbons of construction paper were awarded, and the relays were a huge success.

THIRD GRADE

This year Mrs. Huston and Mrs. Finney were our teachers. We moved to Camp Dodge where the sixth graders were kings, and the third graders were slaves, but we still had a lot of fun playing blackman and soccer. The sixth graders had us in mortal fear of one of the big buildings with their story that it was haunted. New arrivals this year were Bessie Hawn and Joy Main.

FOURTH GRADE

Our fourth grade class was now blessed with the presence of five new members: Jim Kimsey, Fred Warren, Mike and Linda Meston, and Pauline Lewis. Mrs. Caufield and Mrs. Ball, our teachers never had much of a chance to settle down because it seemed like we were always changing from one room to another. We occupied three rooms: one in the barracks at Camp Dodge, another in the basement of the school at Johnston, and the last on the second floor of the new part of the Johnston building.

FIFTH GRADE

Mrs. Moyle and Mrs. Finney took over this year. By now sports had become one of the most important parts of our lives. Even the girls were playing softball with great enthusiasm. The height of our glory came when, one noon, the boys' baseball team battled through a game with the seventh grade to come out on top 5-3.

SIXTH GRADE

Time passed and our class marched into the sixth grade where we were met by our new teachers, Mrs. Roper and Mrs. Manny; and by two new students, Nancy Thompson and Barbara Pardee. We had been studying the history of Iowa, and the teachers decided that it would be fun for us to visit the Capitol building and the Historical building, which, indeed, it was.

SEVENTH GRADE

At last we were in Junior High with two new teachers, Mrs. Den Hartog and Mrs. Jansen. Our ego was boosted to towering heights by the fact that we won the magazine sale. The boys, however, had some of this pride in their abilities lowered when they were introduced to organized basketball, for the season's record showed seven losses and one win. The girls fared better in their first year of basketball and won fourth place in the county tournament. Gary Hoke joined us this year.

EIGHTH GRADE

In eighth grade we had four teachers: Mrs. Den Hartog, Mrs. Henrikson, Mrs. Jansen, and Mr. Herick. Eighth grade proved to be a very successful year for us sportswise. Our football team won a victory over the Freshmen-Sophomore team by a score of 13-6. Both of our basketball teams had winning seasons, the boys having only one loss, and the girls only two. In track, our 440- and 880-yard relays competed in the Valley Relays, the Central Seven Relays, and the Suburban Conference track meets, and never lost a race.

NINTH GRADE

The anticipated years of high school were really here! Mr. Lancaster and Mr. Herrick were our home room teachers, and Mr. Sloan was our sponsor. This year we added Dan Christenson, Jack Heidman, Bob Stifel, Clara McBride, and Carol Finch. During the Christmas holidays the Christmas tree in Mr. Lancaster's room was robbed of all its bulbs. However, a search put on by the more civic-minded pupils of the class found the desk of Mary Jacobson, one of the more unscrupulous members of the class, completely full of loot.

TENTH GRADE

During our sophomore year, Joyce Busby, who had moved away, returned and Larry Strong also joined the class. The girls' basketball team was very successful this year, winning the conference, the sectional tournament, an going to the semi-finals of the district tournament, where they lost to Valley. Mrs. Keeton and Mrs. Cassaday were our home room teachers with Mrs. Keeton, our class sponsor.

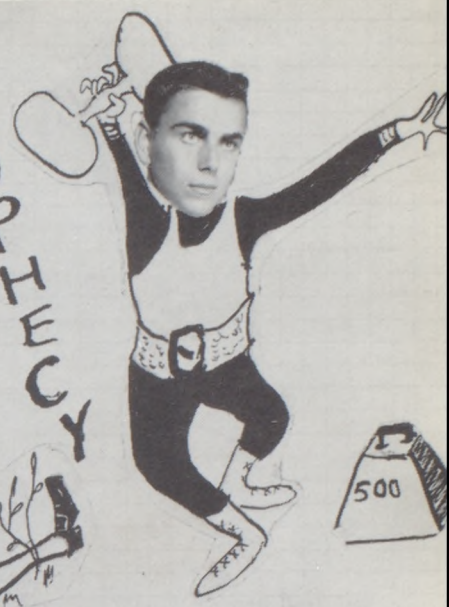

ELEVENTH GRADE

Mr. Herrick and Mrs. Keeton were our home room teachers, and Mrs. Berry was our class sponsor. Our class play, "Come Out of the Closet" was a terrific success, and set a record with $250 taken in. Another highlight was the Junior-Senior banquet on which we spent all the hard-earned money previously mentioned. Joining the ranks of the class this year was Andrew Johnson.

TWELFTH GRADE

Here we are at last and we're having a ball. This is our last year of high school, and we are playing it to the hilt. Our class play, "Headin' For a Weddin'," while it was not so successful financially, was even a better production than our previous play. Our football team has brought home Johnston's first Suburban Conference championship, a task that was five years in the making. Soon we will be graduating and leaving Johnston High School behind, but our thirteen years here will always remain as the happiest years of our lives.

In the late '20's, breeders of Pioneer hybrid seed corn began their preliminary work with chickens. These men foresaw hybrid breeding methods as a NEW approach to poultry breeding.

In 1936, the Pioneer Hi-Bred Corn Company established a chicken department and began a large scale poultry breeding program.

In 1940, the first hybrid chicks — developed by inbreeding and hybridizing—were sold under the trade name "Hy-Line."

By 1958, over 50 million Hy-Line chicks were hatched for many thousands of customers in the United States . . . Canada Latin America, and Europe . . . evidence of the success of this NEW approach to poultry breeding.

HY-LINE CHICKS

Hatched in the Americas . . . and Europe, too

- ★ Hatched by over 300 hatcheries
- ★ Distributed at over 700 locations
- ★ Sold by over 3,000 local representatives
